

Energy Icebreaker

1) Find someone who has a vegetable garden at home. _____	2) Find someone who has planted a tree. _____	3) Find someone who knows what a kilowatt-hour of electricity means. _____	4) Find someone whose family car gets more than 30 miles per gallon. _____
5) Find someone who knows how to read an electric meter. _____	6) Find someone who has more than one compact fluorescent light bulb (CFL) at home. _____	7) Find someone who uses a low-flow showerhead at home. _____	8) Find someone who has seen a photo-voltaic (PV) cell. _____
9) Find someone who walks or rides a bike to school. _____	10) Find someone who knows what BTU stands for. (Write down what it is.) _____	11) Find someone who has split or stacked firewood. _____	12) Find someone who has a family compost pile. _____
13) Find someone who recycles paper, plastic, glass, and metal at home. _____	14) Find someone who sets his/her thermostat back at night. _____	15) Find someone who washes his/her laundry in cold water. _____	16) Find someone who has cleaned the lint screen in a clothes dryer. _____

DIRECTIONS

- 1) Move around the room and introduce yourself to other workshop participants (students or adults).
- 2) Ask them one or more of these questions until you get a "yes" answer.
- 3) Have them sign their names in the appropriate box. The same name cannot appear twice.
- 4) Meet as many people as you can. Try to fill all of the 16 boxes.
- 5) Save this sheet.